

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1005

To establish more efficient and effective policies and processes for departments and agencies engaged in or providing support to, international conservation.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 22, 2013

Mr. PORTMAN (for himself, Mr. UDALL of New Mexico, and Mr. WHITE-HOUSE) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To establish more efficient and effective policies and processes for departments and agencies engaged in or providing support to, international conservation.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Conservation Reform 5 Act of 2013”.

6 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7 In this Act:

1 (1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
2 TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-3 mittees” means—

4 (A) the Committee on Foreign Relations
5 and the Committee on Appropriations of the 6 Senate; and

7 (B) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and 8 the Committee on Appropriations of the House
9 of Representatives.

10 (2) DEVELOPING COUNTRY.—The term “devel-11 oping country” means a country or area that is on 12 the List of Official Development Assistance Recipi-13 ents of the Development Assistance Committee of 14 the Organization for Economic Cooperation and De-15 velopment.

16 (3) HOTSPOT REGIONS.—The term “hotspot re-17 gions” means regions of the developing world that 18 contain an unusually high concentration of species
19 found nowhere else and that have lost at least 70 20 percent of their original extent.

21 (4) NATURAL RESOURCES OR RENEWABLE NAT-
22 URAL RESOURCES.—The terms “natural resources” 23 and “renewable natural resources” mean natural re-24 sources, including soils, forests, animal and plant 25 populations and products, coral reefs, and water, but

1 do not include nonrenewable natural resources such 2 as minerals, oil, and other fossil fuels.

3 TITLE I—ASSESSING EXISTING 4 POLICIES AND PROGRAMS

5 SEC. 101. NATIONAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCES STUDY AND 6 GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTABILITY OFFICE
7 AUDIT AND REPORT.

8 (a) STUDY REQUIRED.—Not later than 90 days after 9 the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of 10 State and the heads of other relevant Federal agencies
11 shall enter into an arrangement with the National Acad-12 emy of Sciences to conduct a study of existing United 13 States international conservation programs to determine 14 the extent to which such programs are achieving the fol-15 lowing objectives:

16 (1) Advancing conservation in the world's most 17 ecologically and economically important terrestrial 18 and marine ecosystems and protecting distinct 19 hotspot regions that provide a high level of economic 20 benefit to human communities as well as a high con-21 centration of genetic and other natural resources.

22 (2) Enhancing and expanding partnerships
23 throughout the international community to address 24 natural resource challenges to ensure healthy and 25 sustainable supplies of water, wildlife habitat and

1 populations, fish stocks and habitat, forests, plants, 2 and other critical resources.

3 (3) Integrating international conservation 4 projects and activities to advance United States for-5 eign policy priorities in areas such as security, de-6 mocratization, sustainable food production, and 7 clean water.

8 (4) Expanding and enhancing the economic and 9 wildlife conservation benefits that derive from prop-
10 erly managed international hunting and angling 11 tourism.

12 (5) Addressing poaching, illegal logging, fishing, 13 and wildlife trafficking and the flow of funds to 14 criminal gangs and terrorists.

15 (b) REPORT REQUIRED.—Not later than 2 years 16 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the National 17 Academy of Sciences shall submit to the appropriate con-18 gressional committees a report containing the findings of 19 the study conducted pursuant to subsection (a).

20 (c) GAO REPORT.—Not later than 2 years after the 21 date of the enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General 22 of the United States shall issue a report that includes—

23 (1) a detailed description of key federally spon-24 sored multilateral international conservation pro-25 grams, including—

(A) the agencies associated with each program;

3 (B) the primary goals of each program;

4 (C) the extent to which executive branch
5 agencies have established measures of perform-6 ance and effectiveness for each program; and

(D) the funds made available to each program in the previous fiscal year;

(3) an assessment on the extent to which executive branch agencies have established strategic goals and performance measures;

19 (5) identification of conservation programs and 20 policies currently being utilized abroad and evalua-21 tion of the potential for similar approaches to be 22 adopted by the United States to further the pur-
23 poses of this Act;

24 (6) any recommendations that the Comptroller 25 General considers appropriate and useful to improve

1 collaboration and coordination between executive 2 branch agencies on international conservation ef-3 forts; and

4 (7) any other analyses the Comptroller General 5 considers necessary or appropriate.

6 TITLE II—POLICY PLANNING 7 AND IMPLEMENTATION

8 SEC. 201. UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL CONSERVATION 9 STRATEGY.

10 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 2 years after the 11 date of the enactment of this Act, the President, acting 12 through the Interagency Working Group on International 13 Conservation designated pursuant to section 202(a), shall 14 establish and submit to the appropriate congressional 15 committees a comprehensive strategy (hereafter referred 16 to as the “International Conservation Strategy”) to 17 strengthen the capacity of the United States to collaborate 18 with other countries, international organizations, the pri-19 vate sector, and private voluntary organizations on a sus-20 tained international effort to conserve natural resources 21 and enhance biodiversity in a manner beneficial to the eco-22 nomic well-being and security of the United States and 23 other participating countries.

24 (b) GOALS AND BENCHMARKS.—The International 25 Conservation Strategy established pursuant to subsection

- 1 (a) shall provide a plan of action that identifies specific 2 and measurable goals, benchmarks, and time frames for—
3 (1) advancing conservation in the world's most
4 ecologically and economically important terrestrial
5 and marine ecosystems;
6 (2) supporting distinct hotspot regions that pro-
7 vide a high level of economic benefit to human com-8 munities as well as a high concentration of genetic 9 and other natural resources;
10 (3) helping developing countries address illegal, 11 unreported, and unregulated industrial fishing where 12 economies are negatively impacted by depleted fish 13 stocks;
14 (4) safeguarding natural areas that provide 15 fresh water to developing countries;
16 (5) supporting enforcement efforts against ille-
17 gal logging in centers of the illegal logging trade; 18 (6) supporting enforcement efforts against 19 poaching and unlawful wildlife trafficking oper-
20 ations;
21 (7) facilitating and leveraging the economic and 22 conservation benefits that derive from properly man-23 aged international hunting, angling, and wildlife ob-24 servation tourism;

1 (8) stabilizing or reversing renewable natural 2 resource scarcity and degradation trends in regions
3 that are vulnerable to conflict, instability, or mass
4 migration from natural resource depletion and wild-5 life trafficking;

6 (9) expanding substantially the amount of eco-
7 nomically and ecologically significant forest in devel-8 oping countries; and

9 (10) reducing the rate of erosion and 10 desertification in developing countries where soil loss 11 is resulting in severe impacts to the economy, food 12 security, or stability.

13 (c) COORDINATION AND LEVERAGE.—The Inter-
14 national Conservation Strategy shall coordinate and lever-15 age the participation of relevant executive branch agen-
16 cies, other countries, the private sector, and private vol-17 untary organizations in ways that—

18 (1) reflect Government-wide policy that encom-19 passes the programs of, and reduces duplication 20 among, executive branch agencies that influence, en-21 gage in, or support international conservation;

22 (2) provide a plan to identify and improve 23 United States policies that could be undermining the 24 conservation of critical natural resources and bio-25 diversity abroad; and

6 (d) ASSESSING AND IMPROVING EFFECTIVENESS.—
7 The International Conservation Strategy shall include a 8 description of the performance and efficiency measures de-9 veloped pursuant to section 202(a)(2)(C) and a process 10 for their utilization.

11 (e) COUNTRY OWNERSHIP.—In preparing the Inter-12 national Conservation Strategy, the Interagency Working 13 Group on International Conservation shall ensure that the 14 Strategy is appropriate to local needs and conditions and 15 incorporates the views of partner countries, and describes 16 a means for local citizens to participate in the implementa-17 tion and the setting of priorities of such programs in the 18 field. The International Conservation Strategy should 19 build upon partner country development plans and re-20 gional strategies.

21 (f) REVISION.—Not later than 4 years after the 22 International Conservation Strategy is established, and 23 every 4 years thereafter, the Strategy shall be revised to 24 reflect—

1 (1) new information collected pursuant to the 2 implementation of the Strategy; and 3 (2) advances in the understanding of biological 4 diversity and the economic and security impacts of 5 renewable natural resource degradation.

6 SEC. 202. POLICY IMPLEMENTATION.

7 (a) INTERAGENCY WORKING GROUP ON INTER-8 NATIONAL CONSERVATION.—

9 (1) ESTABLISHMENT.—Not later than 1 year 10 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the 11 President shall establish the Interagency Working 12 Group on International Conservation (hereafter re-13 ferred to as the “working group”), which shall in-14 clude the participation of the executive branch agen-15 cies that affect, oversee, or implement programs that 16 conduct or support international conservation activi-17 ties or affect the ability of the United States to 18 achieve the goals of the International Conservation
19 Strategy.

20 (2) DUTIES.—The working group shall—

21 (A) develop, through utilization of the re-22 port completed pursuant to section 101(b) and 23 appropriate public and agency input, the Inter-
24 national Conservation Strategy established pur-25 suant to section 201(a);

(B) identify measures to enhance program and policy coordination among the relevant executive branch agencies in implementing the Strategy by ensuring that each relevant executive branch agency undertakes programs primarily in those areas where each such agency has the greatest expertise, technical capabilities, and potential for success, and ensuring that agencies avoid duplication of effort;

(C) work with the Office of Management and Budget to evaluate the effectiveness of the international conservation programs of the relevant executive branch agencies in meeting the goals of the Strategy by developing and applying specific performance measurements, including assessments of—

(i) program effectiveness;

(ii) program efficiency and cost-effic-

tiveness;

(iii) program accessibility and transparency; and

(iv) agency overhead or project administration costs for programs operating in field:

(D) submit to the heads of the United States Government departments and agencies represented on the working group programmatic recommendations that are consistent with the priorities of the Strategy and policy recommendations to ensure that the policies of such departments and agencies advance the interests of the United States in conserving critical natural resources and biodiversity;

(E) submit to such heads recommendations for facilitating coordination and continuity across the departments and agencies in the implementation of international conservation policies subject to interagency or multi-agency jurisdiction;

(F) identify innovative conservation projects, policies, and initiatives that contribute to achieving multiple foreign policy goals simultaneously, including—

(i) reducing poverty;

(ii) expanding access to food and water;

(iii) addressing health threats through natural resources conservation;

(iv) expanding the access of women to sustainably managed natural resources and to techniques for improved natural resource management;

(v) addressing poaching, unlawful fishing, illegal logging, and wildlife trafficking;

(vi) reducing natural resource scarcities or degradation that could increase inter- and intra-state tensions; and

(vii) conserving biological diversity;

(G) identify measures to address obstacles to achieving the goals of the Strategy, including policies that might limit the conservation benefits from properly managed international hunting and angling tourism;

(H) develop recommendations for expanding the role of the private sector in United States international conservation programs by expanding and leveraging private sector contributions;

(I) identify measures that further the goals of the Strategy, including regulatory actions that facilitate the importation process for wildlife species with a legitimate scientific purpose

1 or to directly or indirectly benefit the recovery
2 of the species or its habitat through the support 3 of conservation programs in foreign countries;

4 (J) recommend diplomatic mechanisms,
5 relevant international institutions and agree-6 ments, and other appropriate mechanisms to 7 engage other countries to work jointly with the 8 United States to achieve the goals and actions
9 of the International Conservation Strategy;

10 (K) identify successful conservation pro-
11 grams and policies currently being utilized 12 abroad and evaluate the potential for similar 13 approaches to be adopted or expanded by the 14 United States to further the goals of the Strat-
15 egy;

16 (L) identify underperforming and unsuc-
17 cessful projects and programs and make rec-18 ommendations to improve performance and ter-19 minate programs and projects in a manner con-
20 sistent with furthering the goals of the Strat-
21 egy;

22 (M) identify natural resource conservation
23 needs not currently being met by existing poli-
24 cies and programs and make recommendations 25 for addressing such needs;

(O) meet regularly to review progress on the objectives described in subparagraphs (A) through (N).

19 (C) ensuring the goals and purposes of the 20 working group are met in accordance with para-21 graph (2); and

22 (D) ensuring public input into the develop-23 ment and implementation of the International 24 Conservation Strategy by convening the Inter-

1 national Conservation Public Advisory Board
2 established under subsection (b).

3 (b) INTERNATIONAL CONSERVATION PUBLIC ADVI-
4 SORY BOARD.—

5 (1) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is hereby estab-
6 lished a International Conservation Public Advisory 7 Board (hereafter referred to as the “Advisory 8 Board”), whose purpose shall be to advise the work-9 ing group on matters related to the international 10 conservation policies and programs of the United 11 States and the development and implementation of 12 the International Conservation Strategy, and to en-13 sure that the best scientific, policy, economic secu-14 rity, and business expertise are reflected in the 15 international conservation strategies and policies of 16 the United States.

17 (2) DUTIES.—It shall be the duty of the Advi-18 sory Board to advise the working group on matters 19 related to carrying out the duties described in sub-20 section (a)(2), including on matters submitted to it 21 for consideration by the working group, as well as 22 matters identified by the Advisory Board.

23 (c) MEMBERSHIP.—The Advisory Board shall be 24 comprised of not more than 15 persons appointed from 25 among citizens of the United States who support sustain-

1 able-use conservation, and shall have outstanding exper-
2 tise in one or more of the following fields:

3 (1) International conservation.

4 (2) International diplomacy.

5 (3) International business.

6 (4) Economic development and poverty allevi-
7 ation.

8 (5) Food security and water access.

9 (6) Natural resource scarcity and degradation
10 and related conflict and security issues.

11 (7) The economic and conservation benefits of 12 international hunting and angling tourism.

13 (8) International laws concerning illegal wildlife 14 trafficking and illegal fishing.

15 (9) Wildlife biology and zoology.

16 (d) APPOINTMENT.—Members of the Advisory Board 17 shall be appointed by the President with the advice of the 18 Chairman and Ranking Member of the Committee on For-19 eign Relations of the Senate and the Chairman and Rank-20 ing Member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the 21 House of Representatives, on a staggered basis for a term 22 not to exceed 4 years, except that with respect to the ini-23 tial members of the Advisory Board, $\frac{1}{3}$ shall be appointed 24 for a term of 2 years, $\frac{1}{3}$ shall be appointed for a term 25 of 3 years, and $\frac{1}{3}$ shall be appointed for a term of 4 years.

1 (e) CHAIRMAN.—A member of the Advisory Board
2 shall be elected by a vote of the majority of the Board
3 to serve as Chairman for a 2-year term.

4 (f) MEETINGS.—The Advisory Board shall convene at 5 the call of the Chairman to consider a specific agenda of 6 issues, as determined by the Chairman in consultation
7 with the working group and other members of the Advi-
8 sory Board.

9 (g) REPORTING.—The Advisory Board shall report to 10 the working group chair designated in accordance with 11 subsection (a)(3) on its deliberations, conclusions, and rec-12 ommendations.

13 (h) APPLICABILITY OF FEDERAL ADVISORY COM-14 MITTEE ACT.—The Advisory Board shall be exempt from 15 the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 16 U.S.C. App.).

17 SEC. 203. REPORTING.

18 (a) GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTABILITY OFFICE RE-
19 PORT.—Not later than 4 years after the International 20 Conservation Strategy is established under section 201, 21 the Comptroller General of the United States shall con-22 duct an audit to consider the progress made to achieve 23 the objectives, goals, and benchmarks described in section 24 201(b), and submit to the appropriate congressional com-
25 mittees a report on the development and implementation

1 of the International Conservation Strategy. The report 2 shall—

3 (1) assess progress made in accomplishing the 4 goals and benchmarks described in section 201(b);

5 (2) assess the extent to which the executive 6 branch agencies have identified conservation pro-
7 grams and projects that have the potential for rep-8 lication or adaptation, particularly at low cost, in 9 other United States international conservation ef-10 forts;

11 (3) assess the extent to which agencies have in-12 creased the efficiency and effectiveness of United 13 States international conservation programs and re-
14 ducing executive branch agency overhead or project 15 administration costs for conservation programs im-
16 plemented abroad;

17 (4) assess the extent to which agencies have 18 identified unsuccessful projects and programs and 19 the actions taken to improve performance or termi-20 nate such projects and programs;

21 (5) assess the extent to which agencies have 22 quantified the economic benefits that resulted from 23 investments in international conservation programs
24 and activities called for in the Strategy, and an ac-

1 counting of the measures utilized to calculate such 2 benefits;

3 (6) assess the security benefits to the United 4 States and friends and allies from better manage-5 ment of natural resources and reduction of poaching 6 and wildlife trafficking;

7 (7) include policy analyses and outline options 8 for congressional consideration; and 9 (8) include any other analyses the Comptroller 10 General considers necessary or appropriate.

11 SEC. 204. WILDLIFE DEPENDENT RECREATION AND USES

12 OF WILDLIFE.

13 (a) WILDLIFE DEPENDENT RECREATION.—No pro-
14 vision in this Act shall be construed as restricting, lim-15 iting, or otherwise impairing properly managed rec-16 reational hunting and angling.

17 (b) REGULATED USES OF WILDLIFE.—No provision 18 in this Act shall be construed as restricting, limiting, or 19 otherwise impairing the ability of any foreign jurisdiction 20 or authority to authorize regulated programs supporting 21 wildlife for local consumption and commercialization.

1 TITLE III—SUPPORT AND RE-
2 SOURCES FROM OTHER
3 COUNTRIES

4 SEC. 301. DIPLOMATIC GOALS AND VENUES.

5 (a) GOALS.—Congress urges the President to work
6 with the world's major foreign assistance donor countries 7 to—

8 (1) develop a comprehensive and coordinated 9 international conservation assistance strategy con-10 sistent with the priorities identified in the United 11 States International Conservation Strategy estab-
12 lished pursuant to section 201(a);

13 (2) identify innovative and efficient multilateral 14 mechanisms that can be used to coordinate inter-15 national action by all participating donor countries, 16 identify and reduce duplication of efforts among 17 such donors, achieve the most cost effective invest-18 ments, and leverage international foreign assistance 19 with meaningful financial and other commitments in 20 recipient countries; and 21 (3) agree on a timetable for achieving the goals

22 of the United States International Conservation
23 Strategy.

24 (b) VENUES.—Congress urges the President to ex-25 plore opportunities for achieving the goals identified in

- 1 this section within the context of United States bilateral
- 2 diplomacy with other important international donor coun-
- 3 tries, bilateral diplomacy with newly emerging donor coun-
- 4 tries, and all appropriate multilateral venues.
